Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming an Associate Member of the Riverside Yacht Club.

Attached is the application form you requested. Please make sure that the application is filled out completely. The following important steps must be completed before the membership committee can interview you.

- It is very important that you date and sign your the application (see Section A).
- Applications should include a check covering both the $400 annual Associate Membership dues and their summer marina fees (currently $50.00 per foot, 20 foot minimum and optional $150.00 per cord electricity fee). Checks shall be made payable to the Riverside Yacht Club Inc. and submitted with your application. Each key FOB is $20.
- Associate members are required to perform work hours every year. The number of work hours is determined by the board of directors at the beginning of each year, based on the workload. Any work hours that are not performed will be billed at $100 per hour.
- There are two mandatory meetings each year just for associate members to provide information and collect paperwork.
- A CORI report must be submitted with the application. A CORI report can be easily obtained online.
- Please provide proof of insurance and registration with the application
- Please retain a copy of your receipt and a copy of the application.

If accepted, your application for Associate Membership must be renewed on an annual basis and is contingent on space availability and annual confirmation by the Board of Directors and Membership Committee Chairman. Only boat-owning applicants will be considered for Associate Membership. All Associate Members will receive a copy of the Clubs Rules and By-Laws and are governed by the same rules and regulations as RYC members.

Thank you,

Membership Committe

MEDIATION AGREEMENT

This agreement made by and between the Riverside Yacht Club (hereinafter the "Club") and _____ _____ (hereinafter the "Associate Member") is made pursuant to the Constitution and By-Laws or the Club and its acceptance by the Associate Member is a condition of Associate Membership in the Club

Whereas, the Club is a social organization which, among other things promotes boating and water safety, community service, and fraternal relations between and among its Members, Officers, Directors, Agents, Servants, and Employees; and

Whereas, the Club acting through its Officers and Directors, has determined from previous experience that litigation conducted by, and involving Associate Member, Members, Officers, Directors, Agents, Servants and Employees is inimical to the Club's goals which include society, friendship, and camaraderie and

Whereas, the Club seeks to preserve and promote these values; and whereas the Associate Member also seeks to preserve and promote these values; now, therefore, the parties agree as follows;

1. I _____ swear or affirm that I have read and understand this Mediation Agreement.

2. I agree to submit and dispute, claim or controversy that may arise between me and the Club, its Officers, Directors, Associate Member, Members, Employees, and Agents, to a mediator jointly selected by the involved parties.

3. This agreement shall apply to any claim or demand for damages, whether for personal injury or for property damage, or for equitable relief.

4. The costs of such mediation shall be born equally by the parties thereto.

5. Any associate member or member of the Club who fails or refuses to submit to the mediation any dispute involving the Club, its Officers, Directors, Associate Member, Members, Employees, and Agents, or who institutes or causes any lawsuit(s) to be filed in any Court against the Club, its Officers, Directors, Associate Member, Members, Employees, and Agents, shall be subject to discipline, including but not limited to, suspension or revocation of his/her membership in the Club.

6. Any mediation conducted hereunder shall be presented to a person(s) trained and experienced in the process of mediation. Said Mediator(s) shall be a member in good standing of the Massachusetts Bar Association.

RIVERSIDE YACHT CLUB INC.
52 Ship Avenue
